

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 29, 2009

CONTACT

Gillian Britt (207) 775-2126 ext. 123

gBritt PR

Chef Lawrence Klang Brings a Picnic Lunch to New York City

Camden Harbour Inn, Cellardoor Winery and other midcoast businesses team up to present Maine to New Yorkers, June 11

CAMDEN, Maine and NEW YORK, New York – Precipitated by the increased interest in midcoast Maine by travelers and metropolitan media representatives alike, Natalie’s at the Camden Harbour Inn will present a Maine Picnic Lunch in New York on a midtown Manhattan rooftop lounge on June 11. The lunch-time event, for members of the press based in New York, will take place at the 230 Fifth Rooftop Garden (230 Fifth Avenue at the corner of W. 27th Street) in New York, NY, an extraordinary spot to view the city skyline.

Guests at the Picnic will sample fare from Natalie’s Restaurant at the Camden Harbour Inn, prepared by Executive Chef Lawrence Klang; sip on Cellardoor’s selection of great wines; and visit with the owners and founders of a few of midcoast Maine’s remarkable businesses and organizations. Accompanying Natalie’s will be Cellardoor Winery, Brewster Point, the Camden-Rockport-Lincolnville Chamber of Commerce, and Swans Island Blankets.

Raymond Brunyanszki, owner of Camden Harbour Inn, said, “We’re very pleased to have Cellardoor Winery, Brewster Point, the Camden-Rockport-Lincolnville Chamber of Commerce, and Swans Island Blankets joining us to represent Camden at this event.” Brunyanszki added, “We could not have asked for a better group to come to New York with us for this fun, and unusual, day-time event.”

In addition to the luncheon on June 11th, on the evening of June 10th Natalie’s Executive Chef Lawrence Klang has been invited by top chef Alain Allegretti, owner of Manhattan’s Allegretti restaurant, to create a special dinner with him at Allegretti. Called “La Provence Meets Midcoast Maine”, the evening will feature classic French cuisine with a modern twist, highlighting Maine ingredients and the skills and knowledge of each chef. Cellardoor Winery will be represented at the Allegretti dinner as well, adding to the Maine flavor of the evening. Seats may be reserved by calling Allegretti directly at (212) 206-0555.

###